IRCICA Congress

The 5th International Congress on "The Islamic Civilization in the Balkans"

The Research Center for Islamic History, Art and Culture (IRCICA) and University of Sarajevo jointly organize the 5th International Congress on topic "The Islamic Civilization in the Balkans". The Congress will be held in Sarajevo, B-H capital, from 21 to 23 May 2015.

The aim of the Congress is to maintain and further improve scientific exchange that have been established between experts and researchers in this field over the last congressed that were held in Sofia (2000), Tirana (2003), Bucharest (2006) and Skopje (2010).

The Congress will cover the history of Islamic civilization in the Balkans from various aspects: development in the areas of science, philosophy, technology, art, language, literature and other intellectual activity areas; interaction with other cultures throughout the region; the legacy of Islamic civilization in terms of material culture (architectural heritage, written heritage and other tangible assets) as well as in terms of intangible and spiritual culture (oral, ritual and other intangible aspects of culture).

The Congress is expected to shed light on the role and position of the Islamic civilization in the region as well as the past and prospective contributions to the cultural interactions between the nations of the region. At the same time, this will be an opportunity to assess the state of research as well as the problems and prospects of studies on the topic "Islamic Civilization in the Balkans."

Languages of the symposium will be English, Bosnian and Turkish.
