

Dr. Eden Naby

Dr. Eden Naby received his B.A. from Temple University. He was assistant at Columbia University and earned his Ph.D. from the same university in 1975.

He received fellowships and awards from several academic institutions and universities. He is a member of various professional associations: Some of these are: Middle East Studies Association of North America, Research Committee on Politics and Ethnicity (of the international Political Science Association).

His research interests are the following: Elite formation in transforming Muslim societies of the 19th and 20th centuries, Ethnic and religious minorities within historical and contemporary empires, Identity formation and value instruction on popular level (especially through art and epic literature), Islam as a political force, The environmental imperatives within Muslim cultural regions.

He has written several articles. The main subjects he generally deals with are: The Problems of the Ethnic Groups in Soviet Central Asia and Iran, the Kurdish Rebellion, the role of Islam in various Muslim regions, etc.

The Languages that he is capable of using for research: Turkic Languages (Uzbek, Uighur, Azeri, Turkish (present and Arabic alphabet Ottoman); Semitic Languages (Assyrian [spoken Syriac] this is his native language, Arabic (minimal research use only); Iranian Languages: (Persian, Tajik-Persian, Dari-Persian); French, German, Russian and English.

Dr. Eden Naby

1964 yılında Temple Üniversitesi'nden mezun oldu. 1971 yılında Columbia Üniversitesi'nde master yaptı. Sonra yine aynı üniversite'de 1975 yılında doktora yaptı.

Birçok akademik kuruluş ve üniversiteden çeşitli burs ve ödüller kazandı. Çeşitli akademik kuruluşların üyesidir. (Kuzey Amerika Ortadoğu Etüdüleri Kurumu, Milletlerarası Siyaset Bilimi Kurumu'nun Politik ve Etnik Araştırma Komitesi).

Araştırma ve ilgi alanları, 19. ve 20.yy'da İslâm Camiasında Seçkin Sınıfın Formasyonu, Tarihi ve Çağdaş İmparatorluklarda Etnik ve Dinî Azınlıklar, Halk Seviyesinde Değer Yargılarının Öğretimi ve Kimlik Teşekkülü, Siyasî Bir Güç Olarak İslâmiyet.

Yayınları: Orta Asya'da, Sovyetler'de, İran'da azınlık sorunu, Çeşitli ülkelerde İslâmiyet'in etkilerine değinen makale ve yazıları vardır. Yayınlanacak eserleri: 1868-1991 yılları arasındaki Modern İç Asya Tarihi Sözlüğü, (1992'de yayınlanacak).

Araştırma için kullandığı diller Özbekçe, Uygurca, Azerice, Türkçe ve Osmanlıca, Süryanice, Arapça, Farsça, Almanca, Fransızca, Rusça, ve İngilizcedir.

Yıldız Sarayı, Seyir Köşkü, Barbaros Bulvarı, 80700 Beşiktaş, İstanbul, Türkiye

Telgraf: İslam Yıldızı-Telex: 26484 isam tr Telefon: 160 59 88-160 59 89 P.K. 24 Beşiktaş, İstanbul

IRVING LIBRARY
HONOLULU

Reg. No: I 1808

Class. No: C0140

Dr. Ezer Naby

Dr. Ezer Naby received his B.A. from Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and earned his Ph.D. from the same university in 1957.

He received fellowships and awards from several academic institutions and universities. He is a member of various professional associations. Some of these are Middle East Studies Association of North America, Research Committee on Politics and Economy of the International Political Science Association.

His research interests are the following: Ethnic formation in transiting ethnic societies of the 19th and 20th centuries, Ethnic and religious minorities within national and contemporary societies, Identity formation and ethnic nationalism, and the role of religion (especially through art and epic literature), and as a political force, the environmental perspectives within ethnic cultural regions.

He has written several articles. The main subjects are generally dealt with are: the problems of the ethnic groups in Soviet Central Asia and Iran, the Kurdish Rebellion, the role of Islam in various ethnic regions, etc.

The languages that he is capable of using for research: Turkish, Arabic, Urdu, Persian, Hindi, Bengali, and English. He has native language Arabic and learned Persian, Urdu, Bengali, and English. He has also learned some Turkish, Hindi, and Bengali.

Dr. Ezer Naby

1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1957 Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania