Opening of the Old Bridge, Mostar

Friday, 23 July, 2004: The world comes to Mostar for a symbolic opening
Almost eleven years after its destruction in November 1993, heads of state and dignitaries from around the world are travelling to Mostar to be present at the official opening ceremonies for the reconstructed Old Bridge.

Bakir Rahmanovic's article (link below) examines the background to the reconstruction and the still-divided city in which the Stari Most stands. Also find below the programme for the festivities on 23rd July and a link to the official web site for the opening of the bridge.
